

Some Fundraising Ideas...

Here are some fun ways to fundraise for UNICEF. Don't forget to use UNICEF's on-line fundraising tool to help with your event and please share your ideas with us.

With Everyone

- Have friends and family donate to UNICEF in honor of weddings, birthdays or anniversaries
- Take part in a triathlon, run, or walk where individuals sponsor you for your effort
- Help us celebrate a Special UNICEF Day!
- Hold an art auction
- Host a gala event

With Adults

- Organize a pub trivia night with a purpose
- Host a dinner party
- Organize a Book Club

At Work

- Start a monthly giving campaign at work
- Seek the support of your organization to match employee gifts
- Organise a leave work early Friday
- Hold a 'casual day' at the office
- Have a golf tournament
- Arrange an interdepartmental fundraising challenge
- Auction services provided by employees

At School

- Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF at Halloween (<http://www.trickortreatforunicef.ca/>)
- Help us Spread the Net (<http://www.spreadthenet.org/>)
- Do a Walk for Water (<http://www.unicef.ca/WalkforWater>)
- Organise a school dance for UNICEF
- Host a bake sale
- Sell t-shirts or other items
- Invite a speaker to an event and charge admission

At Halloween

- Hold a Dare to Wear Challenge (dare someone to wear a funky costume)
- Host a Halloween Party
- Host a Prof in the Box Challenge (dare your teachers/profs to wear a Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF style box)

If you have any questions, comments or want to simply share your fundraising ideas, please feel free to contact us at communityevents@unicef.ca.

The Simple Way for Your Birthday:

Host a non-event –don't do anything. Just create an online fundraiser page and ask people to donate money to UNICEF in support of your birthday.